Gentlemen:

Some time last year I left with you a small collection of coins to be indentified and appraised. Unfortunately, I have never called for these coins due to the fact that I have been out of the city almost entirely and during my brief visits to the city neglected to notify you.

I would like very much to obtain these coins, and would suggest that you send them to me collect. My address has been changed since I brought these coins to you and the correct address is 142 West 10th Street instead of 130 West 113th Street.

Hoping to hear a favorable reply from you,
I remain

Sincerely yours,

James G. Waes

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 6th, we are sending you today by express collect ($7.50 plus express charge) the collection of coins about which you write. The charge of $7.50 is for identifying the coins.

Very truly yours,

Associate Curator
